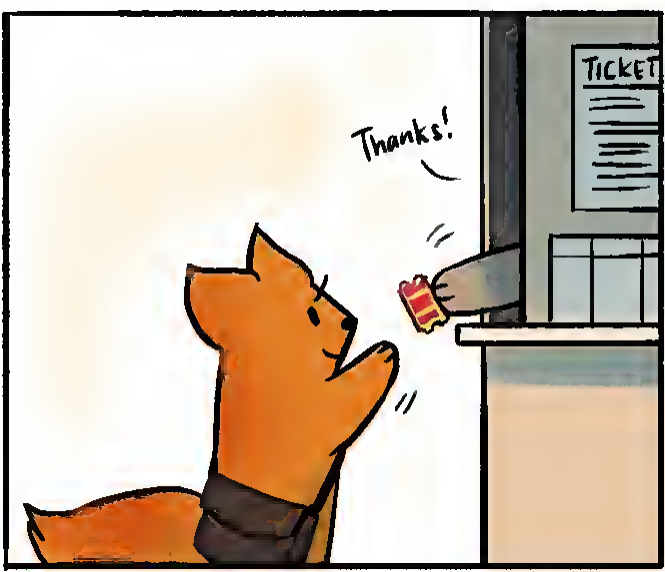
Foxiara left the amusement park.

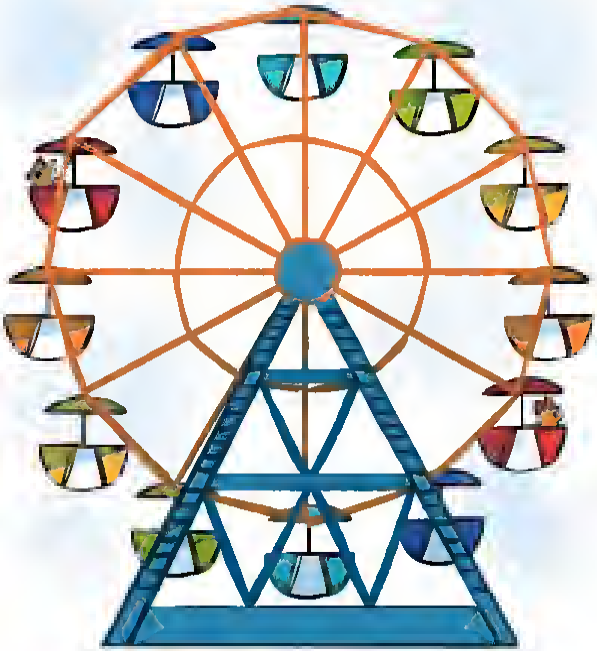
As she is heading home,

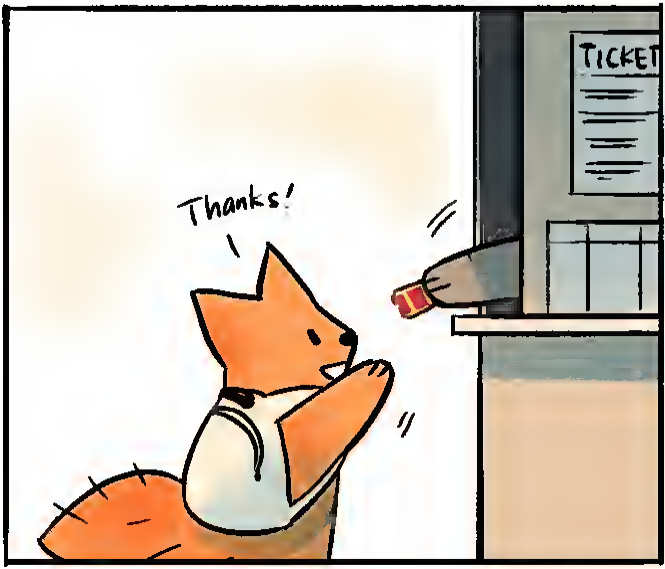
she picks up a familiar scent in the air.

ROAR
STREET
JOURNAL



Thanks!
TICKET

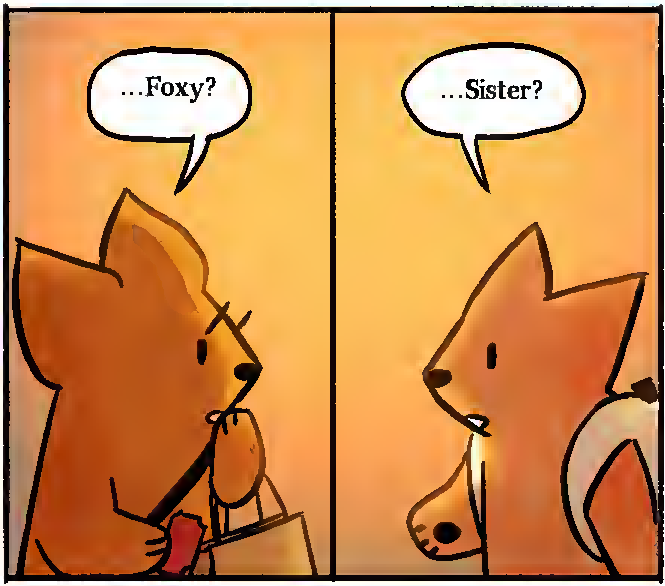




Foxy also visits the amusement park often.

It reminds him of the good times with his family.

Are you...



ROAR STREET JOURNAL

Opposite Sides Of the Merry Go Round

Foxiara has come to the big city for quite some time.

After all the fruitless searching,

Foxiara begins to doubt if she will ever find her brother in the big city.

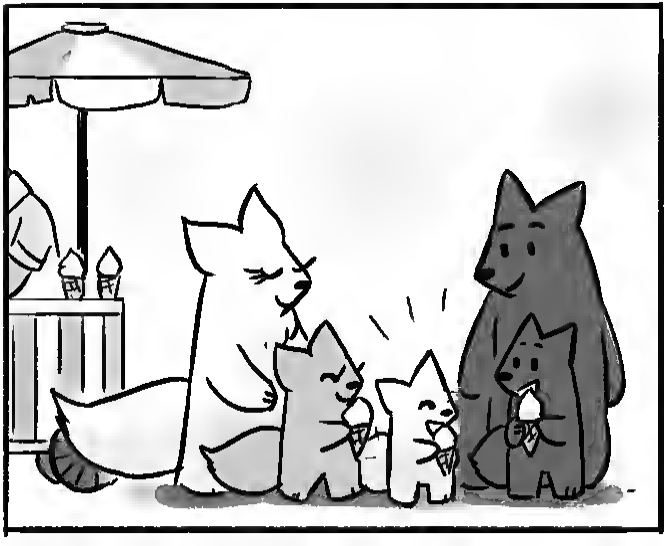
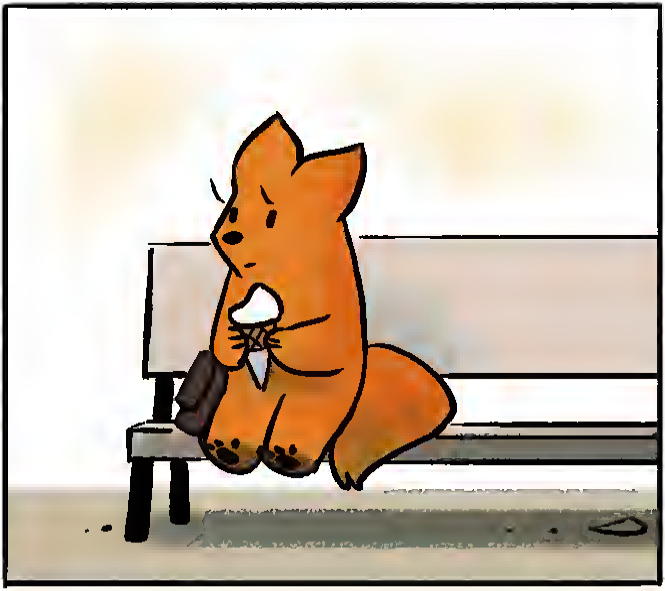
This tastes just like my mum's coffee!
This bean is popular today! A customer also bought the same beans a while ago.
Really? I'm glad to find this coffee bean, it reminds me of my family.

LINE Webtoon

Foxiara follows the scent to a little shop in an alley.

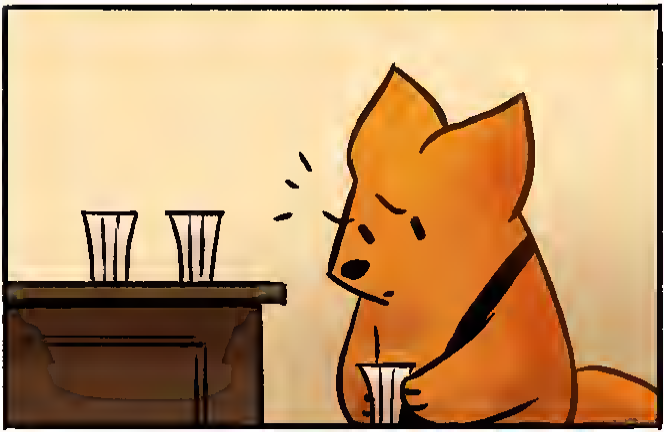
Afterwards, their parents would buy them ice cream, vanilla, the only flavor available.





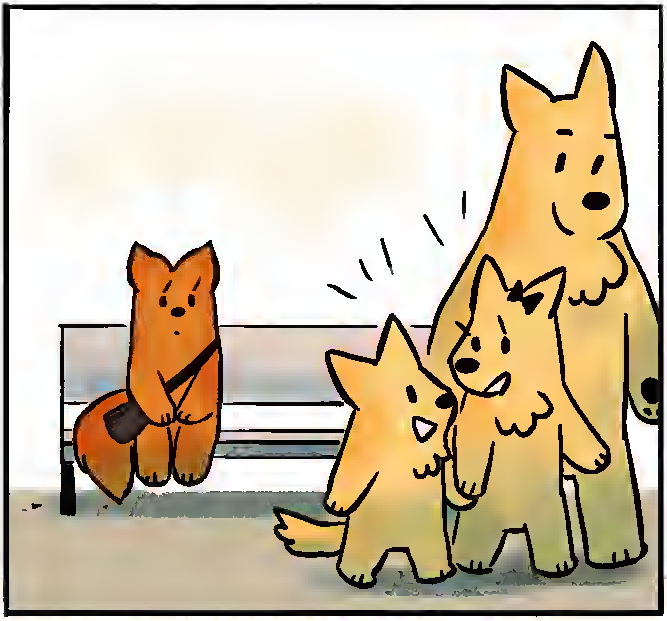
Where's my ticket?
MET

I wonder if I will ever find my brother through...



Then they would go for a ride on the Ferris wheel,

looking over the park.

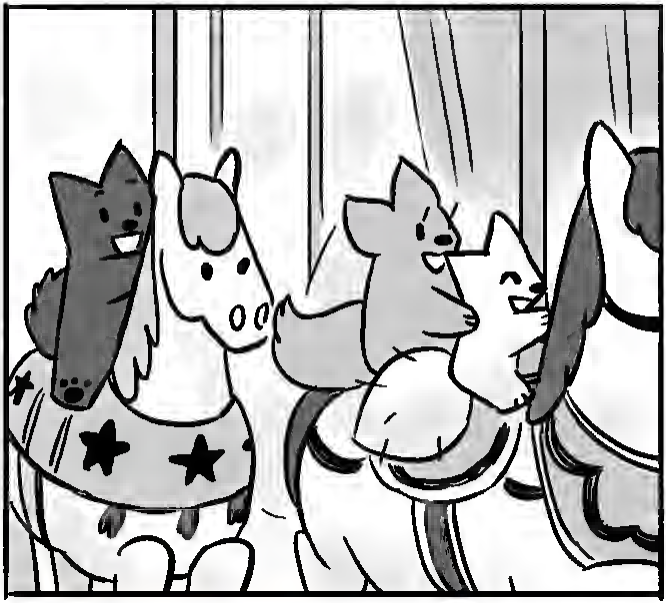


Life is enjoyable here,

but something is still missing.

MET

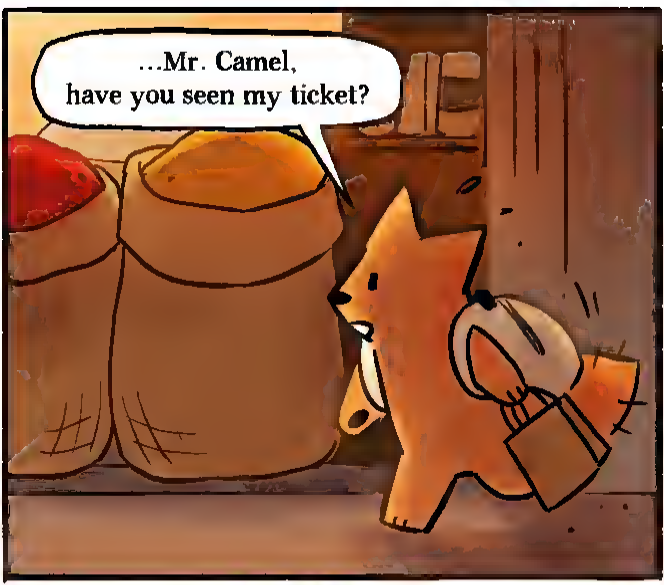
When they were small, their favorite activity was riding the merry go round at the amusement park.



Vanilla please
Thanks!
Vanilla Ice cream

She asks the shop owner about the coffee beans.

HAPPY LAND



...Mr. Camel,
have you seen my ticket?

Did someone drop it here?

She likes the lively culture, beautiful scenery and abundant sunshine.

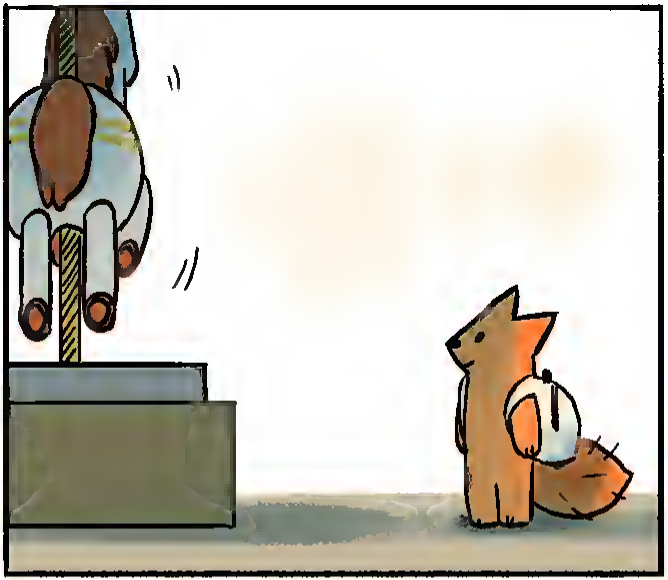
THE BAT PARK



Foxy and Foxiara are always near each other

but they never meet,

just like the opposite sides of a merry go round.

Thank you, young lady!